DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to Amendments, filed on May 02, 2006 has been considered but are deemed moot because of Restrictions Request below.
2. Claims 14, 16-20, 57-58, 60, 65 and 78-92 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even through the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 14, 16-20, 57-58, 60, 65 and 78-90, drawn to computer implemented method for receiving a geographically based query specifying a desired geographic location and a keyword at a query interface, searching a searchable index of content to identify electronic documents having URL addresses that match the desired geographic location and the keyword, searching the collection of geographically an authenticated URL addresses to identify URL addresses of electronic documents that match the desired geographic location, comparing the search results from the searchable index with the search results from the collection of geographically authenticated URL addresses to identify an authenticated set of URL addresses of the electronic documents which match the desired geographic location and the specified keyword and returning the authenticated set of URL addresses of the electronic documents which match the desired geographic location and the specified keyword, which is querying and searching URL addresses, classified in class 707, subclass 3.

- II. Claim 91, drawn to a computer implemented method for in response to the search engine providing query results, comparing the query results from the search engine with the verified URL addresses from the database that correspond to the geographic term, and updating the query results from the search engine to identify which URL addresses in the search results correspond to the verified URL addresses from the database, which is updating and refining searching, classified in class 707, subclass 5.
- III. Claim 92, drawn to a method for creating a searchable index using content from electronic documents having geographically verified URL addresses that are associated with a geographic location verified by a mechanism other than the content of the electronic document, which is creating data index (generating data structure) for searching, classified in class 707, subclass 102.

4. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instance case, invention I can be used for receiving a geographically based query specifying a desired geographic location and a keyword at a query interface, searching a searchable index of content to identify electronic documents having URL addresses that match the desired geographic location and the keyword, searching the collection of geographically an authenticated URL addresses to identify URL addresses of electronic documents that match the desired geographic location, comparing the search results from the searchable index with the search results from the collection of geographically authenticated URL addresses to identify an authenticated set of URL addresses of the electronic documents which match the desired geographic location and the specified keyword and returning the authenticated set of URL addresses of the electronic documents which match the desired geographic location and the specified keyword, which is querying and searching URL addresses. Invention II can be used for in response to the search engine providing query results, comparing the query results from the search engine with the verified URL addresses from the database that correspond to the geographic term, and updating the query results from the search engine to identify which URL addresses in the search results correspond to the verified URL addresses from the database, which is updating and refining searching. Invention III can be used for creating a searchable index using content from electronic documents having geographically verified URL addresses that are associated with a geographic location verified by a mechanism other than the content of the electronic document, which is creating data index (generating data structure) for searching. See MPEP 806.05(d).

5. Because these inventions are distinct for reasons given above and have acquired separate status in the art as shown their different classification, restriction for examination purpose as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II and III each other, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even through the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicants is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to be non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48 (b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48 (b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17 (i).
